

Family,

Memorial Day weekend will be here soon! It's a weekend of family, traditions, and summer. It's sun and laughter. It's racing! What a better way to celebrate with a trip to Indianapolis to attend the 64th IPL 500 Festival Parade and 104th running of the Indianapolis 500! It's sure to be unforgettable!

You'll kick your weekend off Saturday by heading downtown to see the decked-out floats, huge balloons, marching bands, beautiful festival princesses, and Indy drivers. As the military marches by and aircraft fly over, you can commemorate the servicemen and women by showing gratitude and honor for our military. After oohing and awing over the sights, filling your bellies with delicious food that smells great and tastes even better, you can enjoy the evening as a family with what Indianapolis has to offer. Nonetheless, find yourselves in bed early for a much needed restful night ahead of the big race.

When Sunday comes, be prepared to take the track in full force. With sunglasses, sunscreen, and a good pair of walking shoes, head to the track for the exciting part! Be sure to get to your seat early so you can watch the past winners' parade, listen to "God Bless America" and our National Anthem.

I can almost hear it now... Back home again, in Indiana, And it seems that I can see.... I can see the racers in their cars and ready to go. "Start your engines." The green flag flies. And they're off. Vrooom... You'll be like a kid in a candy shop with the biggest smile on your face and family beside you, and the loudest rumbling you not only hear, but feel in your chest. It's the most exciting thing in the world. The Indy 500: The Greatest Spectacle in Racing!

Your pal,

Jackson
